

x 32 p1 pnow 48

Scale How,
Ambleside,
Westmorland.

June 13th 1920

My Dearest

How sweet of you to accept my "don't feed the man at the wheel!"

Yes. I always remember the French Masters you took me to see at the Guild Hall & the policeman who "looks up up!"

No, dearest. I don't think you want to be made much of - I have not - worked 26 years with you for nothing. We are both content with the work, + greatly promoted to be doing a big thing for our country.

Also, I have always admired how sweetly all things have gone both in your own home & in the office - You know you give your friends things to live up to?
but - I don't think for 4

Scale How,
Ambleside,
Westmorland.

moment - this Miss Wix.

I believe it to overstrain of the brain from which we are all suffering.

Miss Remond - I do better by all means if we can.
I don't know the way but - something may turn up.

Something led to talk about Miss Remond's work. + I said at last - 'Would any of you like to have such work?

Miss Peasey "I should just love it" -

You know a Senior Monitor does not take a first post -

The post she fills here is more difficult + responsible + requires more tact + strength than any likely to follow it. She has filled it admirably.

Told us about Wholly quite admirably - As full of the necessary knowledge + fresh enthusiasm.

i 32 p 5 pncu 48

Scale How,
Ambleside,
Westmorland.

is older than most & very safe - What think you, dear? I shall not scurry about - but because I am sure your decision will be right - & only you had any one to decide upon! For a friend from Miss King's - is suffering from a bad break down.
& she has no qualification beyond her own very pleasing personality.

How interesting Shelby
about - Capt.
Remond-Wallis! i 32. p 6 pnc 48

About the "Blessing." I love it - may I wait till sent it in type.
About the "Documents" - my dear, Many thanks my breath away - will want a tremendous lot of beating out, very able & suggestive as they are.

And now, I am all till you come in "for a week"! on Sunday morning - But don't look too tired - it will be very delightful to see you - your very loving C. M.

i 33 p 1 p 204 48

Scale How
Ambleside.
Westmorland.

you come infect from the love over your Chi.
Scripture
has W. W. W. W. taken up work.

from 23rd 1920

And Encores found out - what pretty things you were going to wear -

I thought of you at the wedding. I wonder was your Mr. Wake &

Mr. Wakefield. Ch. in Mrs.

Mr. Richards thinks of coming here from Waldenwater during the last-fortnight of Sept. when we shall have returned.

I shall be able to find out what the possibilities of "Board" help are - but I do not expect further help just now.

I doubt if this being be acceptable in the

Scale How,
 Ambleside,
 Westmorland.

Schools as an appointed person - They would like one of us - Also, his salary wd be much to be for us if he were fully appointed & his 'Council' would certainly not allow him to make little piros on his own account.

As Mr. Asquith wd say, wait & see. Love you

i 33 p 4 pncu 48

The right persons will appear.
I do certainly think.

But the local Councils should be required to pay a fee + travelling expenses. After the first visit + perhaps for the first visit.

So sorry dear Lady A.
I am frightened of all the new schemes at once!

I hope Glenville has subsidised into peace & its usual placidness.
No. 10 on the 12th day

i 34 P. 1 p. 48

State House,
Ambleside.

July 6th 1920

It comes too late to do together.
Things even at a work at the end of even

How are things going.
Shop furniture is not an unusually member!

I am in despair about the night persons for the office. At present things narrow themselves down to Miss Maud & Miss Reaney - & Vols

not - just that they are strong enough.

East, Butler, Lykes, Pomeroy, Brigham, Frost - across to me. but not with any promise or hope.

Especially, we should know soon as she should be under Miss Dix & go about with her in Sept. & part of October - & she is engaged to Mr. James Belton.

This has just come & I have tried to buy her. I cannot put my judgment House of Education.
Agst Miss Ambleside, 235 p 1 Hasson & the Westmorland. p 48 48 Seems no one else.

7. 7. 1920

Dearest;

I have spoken to Miss Peacey about the matter today for the first time telling her that it was in your hands. Her reply was "I should just love to take it" & her bright enthusiastic look was rather delightful.
I told her there would no doubt be difficulties that would be the did not seem dismayed at all.

What do you think?

We should not get either of the Butler, or the Frost, I am quite sure. I am not sure that we should get anyone better anywhere than this Place.

She has a good manner, dresses pleasingly, writes a good letter, has our principles at ~~her~~ ^{her} finger's ends is heartily enthusiastic about the work.

The fact of her missing a year in her training & then coming back to finish

House of Education,
 Ambleside,
 Westmorland.

2 has brought her in contact with our work in an unusual way.

She has visited some of the Strand Schools & is very keen about P.N.S.U. in them.

We have found her very business-like & successful as Senior Monitor - a rather difficult position as you know, requiring tact.

I feel as if there were lots more to say, but the chief

King's her own enthusiastic desire for this piece of work.
She could join this Wix (this Wix's), immediately on her return to about to the schools with her which would be a sort-of training.

Now are you not really pleased to have the prospect of delighted writing work from a student who needs no persuasion!

I have called on this Place, now often to speak when 235-5 5 p 24 48

3
House of Education,
Ambleside,
Westmorland.

visitors have been here & the like & she is perfectly ready & simple & always speaks to the point.

But I dare say my writing is labour in vain because you may have thought of just the right person.

Could you possibly let us hear at once because we go on Friday 9th. There's a holiday engagement & other complications depending on your answer.

I am getting quite nearly to go away, when asking you to take a dictated letter.

Dear love in which
Kit. Kit joins,

Ever yours

E.C.

(E.C.)

We go on the 12th 6

Lake Hotel

Langham March Wells
Buckinghamshire

i 361 pncu 48

~~Scale~~ How,

Ambleside. July 12th 1920

Dear Ann.

Yes, dearest. I feel I have shouldered a heavy responsibility in venturing to urge Miss Casey.
But I think she is a strong person & quite straight & simple-minded. & then it has been of least the main importance.
My notion was that she should join Miss Wil in Sept. - to come as she returns, & go about 5 schools with her during ~~the month~~ but - then, there is the expense of journeys & keep -!

I think that would be a very bits of training - she speaks well & convincingly, because she is not very urgent.

We are sleeping here on our way to Langfennmark. The railway stations seem very quiet - almost deserted - surely a bad omen.

I sent your telegram on to Mrs Peasey who tells me she has written I am sure that no transmission will pass between her & Miss Vix.

If you should see a King

Scale How,

Ambleside.

Of anyone's letter, I'm sure she will understand & understand.

Open a floodgate of your eyes & give us your friend!
 My nice little Ned - you remember my pretty maid? leaves us to be married.

I forget your 'How many' date - So let me again when you write.

A great number of those Home Reading Union's people come in to visit the 6th house -

College & School. I don't like it very much, but pennies are precious in these dear days.

Over affairs, after the war, some students, about 3 dozen, are able to go to France & were very excited about it.

Geoffrey's notion is most interesting. I dare say he will do something very good in the line of lives. Canon Barnett would have thought well of much less good as both - Chas.

Dear Sir,
 I am sorry to hear that you are unwell. I hope you will be able to get better soon.
 I am, Sir,
 Yours faithfully,
 J. B.

I feared that the note I sent - had waxed cold. I expect her another month her overgrowing. Well, the dear girl's chief qualification was her hearty wish for the work & y.
 She has lost. That, we love the 84 Road 1, Pond 48

 Scale Hall,
 Ambleside.
 I am sorry for the case.
 I am sorry only 4 days in the matter.
 I am sorry for the matter. I am sorry for the matter. I am sorry for the matter.

less. I hope nobody spoke to her about typewriting, voice production, shorthand &c.

I doubt if any old student would wish to undertake a second training of a sort which would stand in the way of her doing the work she cares for.

But - I don't - suppose anywhisper of that sort has got about - it is just

Scale How,
Ambleside.

But her mother thinks her too young. evidently so as she would not have offered to do it - three years hence:

If you can get one more offer for three years hence you will be able to drive a four-in-hand!

I'm afraid you are not much comforted by the list I sent. I rather think so.
Williamson has already refused. The two roads are ~~entirely~~ ^{entirely} if their fathers would spare them.

Miss M'Leod has just got her girls thro' the work for the first time. & is keen.

But in truth Miss M'Leod is the only one of whom I have much hope. Miss Bowyer's fathers would not, I think, let her go about. I am greatly distressed by your ill fortune.

I do you think that if you

TELEGRAPHIC ADDRESS.
BARIUM,
LLANGAMMARCH WELLS.
TELEPHONE No. 2.

THE LAKE HOTEL & PUMP HOUSE,
LLANGAMMARCH WELLS,
BRECONSHIRE.

address: Mr. J. G. 1920 24/10/20
I go to the enclosure from Mr. Household

This morning I sent - the enquiries to Mrs. Peacey - but of course if you knew for - some one else we need not - concern ourselves about her. This Parish seems to

i 38 p2 pncu (48)

is enormously touched & gratified by the big testimonial - and Vasco pretty of my Lady A to keep out of it - as if she had nothing whatever to do with it -!

Here we are & baths have begun & every one thinks we so much better than I was last year.

Please don't forget to tell me when you pass Norway - & also Fars Buss's

Scale How,
Amble side.

Lake Hotel Langensmarch Hills.

Brecon - July 31st 1920

Dearest -

I wonder am I proposing another golden hope - but what about - Veronica de Pictor - (our twin de Pictor).

She was been enough you recollect - to out speed a paper at - Freeman's the origin of our school there. She is not - brilliant but has a very pleasing presence & manner & is really intelligent. I think she would take with teachers & children & would get up the pamphlets carefully - she would be ready too & appreciate what is done in the schools with a pleasing intelligence. Her home address is Kingshop Vicarage Northampton & she will doubtless be at home for her holidays

TELEGRAPHIC ADDRESS.
BARIUM.
LLANGAMMARCH WELLS.
TELEPHONE No 2.

240 p1 pnc4 48

THE LAKE HOTEL & PUMPHOUSE, LLANGAMMARCH WELLS,
BRECONSHIRE.

Aug. 9th 1920

My dear Sir,

I tried hard to send a positive 'yes' in 'No' which should be like the being of a halfpenny - but I could not.

I am very fond of the idea "Penny" - but - could the possibly let a child narrate, could she help giving pretty rather brilliant lectures or lessons? I am afraid

The Lake House

140 p 2 p 4 48

140 p 2 p 4 48

It is less a case of not understanding what we are doing - that could be remedied - but I wonder if it is inherent inability to avoid the sense of 'self-expression'.

In a general way that is all right - sometimes enjoyable. but then we have definite work to do. Can the merchant I think has good English - quickness in 'the aptitude' - real sympathy

TELEGRAPHIC ADDRESS,
BARIUM,
LLANGAMMARCH WELLS,
TELEPHONE No 2.

THE LAKE HOTEL & PUMP HOUSE,
LLANGAMMARCH WELLS,
BRECONSHIRE.

with both her husband & children her manner & appearance are all in her favour.

Then, what would she do without Miss Wessons, & her she got out of the habit of the little domesticities?

I think she hardly could tell you whether she could bind herself to sing gospel in the way that proselytists want. requires.

84 naved 4 of 2

The Lake Hotel & Farm House
Barnes, Middlesex
Buckinghamshire

Mr. M. C. has picked in various waters.

What about her writing & spelling?
Would the elementary teachers think scorn of Miss?

I am sorry to write such a dubious letter to in truth in many ways, & think it would be excellent.
So please decide as you think best. I think your argument for 'Use a word' is telling.
Somebody that we have had

TELEGRAPHIC ADDRESS,
BARIUM,
LLANGAMMARCH WELLS,
TELEPHONE No 2.

240 p 5 pnc 48

THE LAKE HOTEL & PUMP HOUSE,
LLANGAMMARCH WELLS,
BRECONSHIRE.

had to do with for years is desirable.

For saying things about him to Mr. Wilkinson. He knows no more about our methods than does Miss Pennefather. but I think he could learn it is more law-abiding by nature.

Then, we have to remember that Miss Perrett did not

24 Nov 48

Dear Mr. [illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]

know & begin with was not quite sympathetic. I had incomparable his work was!

Anyway, I shall be glad that the 19th arrives & you are enroute for Norway.

What a beautiful!

As usual the letters have 'let it out' of me - but they seem so wonderfully picked up.

Love in thick little even your C.W.

TELEGRAPHIC ADDRESS,
BARIUM,
LLANGAMMARCH WELLS,
TELEPHONE No 2.

24 Road 1912
42
THE LAKE HOTEL & PUMP HOUSE,
LLANGAMMARCH WELLS,
BRECONSHIRE.

Sep. 1. 1920

My Dearest!

What a pretty picture!

I see Cyril rowing you on the Homesegian lake.

I enclose a nice letter from Miss Devonshire & cannot help wishing —!

We don't get much office news because there is none to tell. Sorry. Miss Kie is being wise I think.

What do you think?

I have been greatly moved

1890-91

1890 about. More from the schools as we go there next week to visit the head teachers to see a - "The Bell" - It will be at all so good as seeing the schools but I'm not up to that though the better have some one must find.

Also, as soon from the to Elkhart. ("Highfield") to strengthen the hands of the of the schools.

Shops - see Sir Michael R. R.

TELEGRAPHIC ADDRESS,
BARIUM,
LLANGAMMARCH WELLS,
TELEPHONE No 2.

241 p 3 pneu 48

THE LAKE HOTEL & PUMP HOUSE,
LLANGAMMARCH WELLS,
BRECONSHIRE.

It was asking some people to meet me at lunch, but I found Mr. Clements is trying to get them to come to the meeting.
If he can I shall be greatly pleased as you know I don't attempt business deals, things - but we want to get hold of facts especially of Mr. D. who is most cordial.
How are you?

I have been attempting to get hold of a new specimen shelves for you. I would,

21 p 4 p 48

THE LANCET

FRIDAY, 19th JANUARY 1890

THIRDSHEET

Do you know her - Lady Harcourt Smith - (John Keble & Albert. P. M. & Co. Ltd.) - I liked her & a "Plover" quite a lot - at least especially when I found her boy had been to Mr.
 Fiddis & she had been pressed into service to write his letters.
 Doesn't that seem a long time ago? The boy is - engaged!

With all things doing in prospect - we are busy, so I shall only write you this hasty letter -

The country here is extremely pleasing - dear love & son & daughter ever your Son.

TELEGRAPHIC ADDRESS,
BARIUM,
LLANGAMMARCH WELLS,
TELEPHONE No 2.

24 p 5 p 47

THE LAKE HOTEL & PUMP HOUSE,
LLANGAMMARCH WELLS,
BRECONSHIRE.

She is also very happy in her present post & may not be inclined to give it up - but - then her father is interested in R.N.B. & may encourage her - & the possible prospect of living & working with her cousins might draw her - there would be no difficulty about her occupying a subordinated position to her cousins & that possibility

24 FEBRUARY 48

might weigh a little with other students.

Now what do you think - is it worth trying? I am anxious that you should get this business settled before you get home.

Thank you so much for sending Mrs. Busch's address.

A South African cousin of F. R.'s who is staying here is going to advise with her as to furnishing the African.

TELEGRAPHIC ADDRESS,
BARIUM,
LLANGAMMARCH WELLS,
TELEPHONE No 2.

i 41 p7 pneu 48

THE LAKE HOTEL & PUMP HOUSE,
LLANGAMMARCH WELLS,
BRECONSHIRE.

house. Her husband went down in the same vessel as Miss Hall. She is a charming woman & the meeting between the two cousins was the saddest thing. They had not met for 35 years, that is, since they were friends & Schoolfellows at - Bromley High School.
We have been having wonderful weather here - I wonder what has been

THE LITTLE LADY

BY MRS. J. H. B. B. B.

CHICAGO

Your experience & advice you have & how things are going.

I think I am doing well to judge by the experience of former years - but the latter late a terrible deal out of one & leaves you living for days -

Then love is not Kut Kut joins - everyone's CM.